Why Comacchio?

Comacchio, an artistic lagoon city located on the Adriatic Riviera in the Emilia-Romagna Region, represents an ideal setting for hosting artistic and educational experiences dedicated to young students. Its cultural and environmental richness, intertwined with a strong historical identity and a unique landscape heritage, finds in the Civica Scuola di Musica di di Comacchio one of its most active and renowned cultural leaders.

The Civic School of Music of Comacchio is not only a center for musical education but also a true cultural engine for the community, promoting initiatives that range from thematic concerts in historical sites and soundscapes inspired by local traditions, to inclusive educational projects involving citizens of all ages. Its daily work actively contributes to keep alive and accessible the bond between culture, community, and new generations, strengthening Comacchio's musical identity and projecting it onto a national and international stage.

Thanks to this vibrant activity, Comacchio today stands as the capital of youth music in Emilia-Romagna and a leading destination for cultural and musical tourism, attracting every year hundreds of young artists, families, and visitors captivated by the combination of high-level artistic education, warm hospitality, and breathtaking landscapes.
